Human Values and Professional Ethics Related Topics in BBA Programme

Business operates in an increasingly turbulent and complex environment. To carry out their purpose, whether it's to catalogue the world's information or to discover and develop new concepts, businesses need to coordinate the interests of multiple stakeholder groups including employees, customers, financiers, suppliers, and community members. Our values are important because they help us grow and develop. They also help us to create the future we want to experience.

Therefore, in the 4th semester BBA, the syllabus includes a paper on "BUSINESS ETHICS AND CSR" which is a major service adopted by all corporates. Therefore, the main objective of this paper is to give an overview of the ethical aspects of Business and Corporate Social Responsibility to inculcate learning amongst students to promote value-based thinking and commitment towards the society.

The Syllabus is designed as follows

Module I: Business Ethics: An Overview - Nature of Ethics – Relationship between Ethics and Business – The Unitarian view of ethics – The separatist view of Ethics – The Integration view of Ethics – Need for Business Ethics – Importance of Ethics in Business
